

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that the sites visited by the user send and record on their personal computer or any other device, even mobile, to then be re-transmitted to the same sites next visit.

Thanks to cookies, a site remembers the actions and preferences of the user.

There are various types of cookies, depending on their characteristics and functions, and these may remain in the user's computer or mobile device for varying periods of time. In particular we can distinguish:

1. session cookies: which are automatically deleted when the browser is closed;
2. persistent cookies: which remain on the user's equipment until a pre-established expiry date.

Types of cookies used by this site

In order to improve the navigation within the website, we use technical cookies indispensable for the operation of the site or necessary to perform activities requested by the user.

Analytical / performance cookies.

These allow us to recognize and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around this site when they use it. This helps us to improve the way this website works, for example by ensuring that users find what they are looking for easily.
